

CHABAD OF
THE TRI-VALLEY
PROGRAM GUIDE
JANUARY-JUNE
2019 / 5779

Dear Friends,

Welcome to 2019 at Chabad of the Tri Valley!

This year the Jewish world will mark the 25th yahrtzeit (anniversary of passing) of our dear Rebbe.

In this spirit, we have planned a year of programming and events motivated by his vision. The Rebbe emphasized Judaism's insistence that this world and humanity are essentially G-dly and good, that light dispels darkness, that Judaism should bring people together - not keep them apart, that helping others brings out the best in us, and that performing acts of goodness and kindness will bring redemption for all of humanity.

Join us for a lecture, program, or class, or event. We look forward to welcoming you into our community and family.

Rabbi Raleigh and Fruma Resnick

(and Malka, Yankele, Shimi, Mendel, Mushka, Riva, & Rachmiel)

Rabbi Josh and Chavie Zebberman

Chabad of the Tri Valley was established by

THE LUBAVITCHER REBBE

of blessed memory, who continues to drive and inspire its operation and expansion.

CAMP GAN ISRAEL

Boys & Girls: Entering Kindergarten - 8th grade

June 24 - July 19

Summer is a time when children want to be free to explore in innovative and adventurous environments. Camp Gan Israel of the Tri Valley offers a variety of fun and enriching opportunities to capture kids' imaginations and to celebrate their Jewish pride.

Traditional camp activities, hiking, art, sports, outdoor survival, and field trips galore make for a summer not to be forgotten!

Our Gan Israel staff are renowned for their dedication and love for their campers. Campers will thrive in the upbeat camp atmosphere, making friends, gaining confidence, and developing a positive and Jewish self-image.

At Camp Gan Israel every camper is viewed as a unique individual.

We look forward to welcoming you to the Gan Israel family!

WHAT'S Love GOT TO DO WITH IT?

A special evening with cheese, wine, and havdallah

Saturday, January 19 at 7:30 PM

After all the pop-psychology and therapy, best-selling author and lecturer Rabbi Manis Friedman will sum it all up in his inimitable and entertaining style. What is it that really holds relationships together? You won't want to miss it!

CRIME AND CONSEQUENCE

A 6-week course from the Jewish Learning Institute

6 Tuesdays - Join whichever is more convenient!

Morning Class: 10 AM / Evening Class: 7:30 PM

Begins February 5

Do you care deeply about humanity, are enraged by injustice, are fascinated by difficult-to-solve real-life scenarios, and committed to seeing a justice for all? Then this course is just for you.

Explore 3000 years of Jewish wisdom about justice, criminal convictions, sentencing, crime prevention, and rehabilitation. Challenge your thinking and apply ancient Talmudic principles to real and complex, modern-day cases. Learn to discover and recover the humanity within criminals, question practices that seem unethical and unfair.

What is the goal of punishment? Is it to gain retribution for the victim, keep criminals off the streets and safeguard from future crime, set an example and instill the fear of law, or to rehabilitate the criminal and reintroduce him to society?

Is life-without-parole a justifiable penalty? Is it within our right to sentence a man to death? When would these be warranted? Is there a better way?

Register today for a somewhat devastating and infuriating but thoroughly astonishing experience!

$99 per person / $175 couple discount

THE MONTHLY SHABBAT

Shabbat with Shep Zebberman

Saturday, February 2

Whether in his arguments before the supreme court, as a Los Angeles Superior Court Judge, or in his 26 years as a criminal and juvenile attorney, Shep Zebberman's unique Jewish journey and renowned professional success have been intertwined. Listen as he shares the special and humorous convergence of his faith and career.

Shabbat with Rabbi Yochanan Friedman

Saturday, March 2

As founder of Chabad in Santa Cruz, Rabbi Friedman and his family have served their community for nearly 2 decades. His recent creation - "The Self-help Program That's Not About Self" - was adopted by the California Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation. The ideas Rabbi Friedman will share are sure to offer a fresh perspective on success and fulfillment.

Shabbat with the Next Generation

Saturday, April 6

A powerful line-up of high school teens in our community who have impressively stood up as proud Jews in their schools and amidst their peers. Their strength, passion, and conviction to grow in their Judaism is contagious and sure to uplift you.

Shabbat with Daniel Jontof-Hutter PhD

Saturday, May 4

What will the future of human exploration in space look like in the coming decades? How realistic is the possibility of life (and a Chabad House) on Mars? In his talk, Daniel Jontof-Hutter, Professor of Physics and Astronomy at the University of the Pacific and a scientist at NASA, will take us on a journey out of this world.

14TH ANNUAL

Gala Women's Dinner

"Celebrate the Jewish Woman"

SUNDAY, MARCH 3 AT 5:30 PM

Featuring: BCBG'S JOYCE AZRIA

As the eldest daughter of fashion guru, Max Azria, Joyce inherited her father's sharp entrepreneurial spirit, creative flair, and strong sense of ambition at BCBGMAXAZRIA. By age 18, Joyce was already part of the family business and at her father's side.

In June of 2009, Joyce Azria was appointed the Creative Director of their newest line, BCBGeneration. With Joyce directing design, merchandising, business marketing, and sales development, BCBGeneration became widely successful with their apparel and accessories now sold in 400 locations in over 100 countries and partners with Macy's, Dillard's, Lord and Taylor, Nordstrom's, and Bloomingdales.

Most recently Joyce launched "Avec Les Filles" - a hybrid contemporary lifestyle brand with a playfully sophisticated French aesthetic. She also operates two other brands: Rohb by Joyce Azria on Amazon - an under $50 brand, and WUKOgals - a modest direct-to-consumer business.

Joyce's commitment to Jewish observance makes her a grounding role model. Driven forward by a strong moral code and an understanding that fashion has a responsibility to play in society, her Judaism guides her personal and professional life.

Together with her husband and 6 children, Joyce currently lives in Los Angeles.

WITH ALL MY HEART

A 6-week course from the Jewish Learning Institute

6 Tuesdays - Join whichever is more convenient!

Morning Class: 10 AM / Evening Class: 7:30 PM

Begins May 14

More than half (55%) of Americans say they pray every day, according to a 2014 Pew Research Center survey, while 21% say they pray weekly or monthly.

But what is the purpose of prayer? Can we cause G-d to change His mind? Is He in need of incessant praise?

This course aims to make prayer more personally meaningful by addressing some of the philosophical, emotional, and practical barriers that make it difficult to pray.

Examine the history how our prayers were developed. Learn the layers of meaning woven within the most notable prayers. Learn the art of tapping into prayer as a means of connection to your heritage.

Register today for a course that may just change how you pray!
